

Skuttlebutt

Cabernet Shiraz 2015

Background

Skuttlebutt wines are made to be enjoyed. A kaleidoscope of the Margaret River region, these wines are fresh, fruity and flavoursome.

Skuttlebutt is a nautical term for the source of fresh drinking water on a sailing ship where people gather to catch up on the gossip and goings-on. To reflect the nature of this everyday social gathering, we create these wines as the perfect excuse to gather and Skuttlebutt with friends.

Tasting Notes

Dark red with purple hues and rousing scents of poached plums, mulberries, violets and smokey vanillin oak. The palate is soft and supple offering delicious fruit flavours and a hint of five spice. Round tannins impart a gentle and elegant grip with a salivating finish.
